Dear Mr B [REDACTED]

I have tried to contact you today and have left two messages asking you to return my call.

We are unable to facilitate receiving and returning your brother, it is not in D [REDACTED]'s best interest to be dropped in unfamiliar places to enable this.

My understanding is that when you spoke to R [REDACTED] on Monday you stated you could not have D [REDACTED] home due to being unwell from your hunger strike. It is unreasonable at such short notice to arrange this or for the care agency to support.

Kind regards

A [REDACTED]
